

Extended Care/ Summer Camp Director

Davis Waldorf School in Davis, California, is seeking a creative, nurturing and experienced early childhood teacher who enjoys working with children and has enthusiasm for experiencing nature and an interest in creating/sharing the outdoor curriculum. This position is a year round position. Our ideal candidate possesses a Site Supervisor Permit and Waldorf teaching experience and has completed their Director ECE units or is in process of completing them. The program is licensed under Title 22 regulations. This candidate would be excited to work with the preschool and kindergarten aged child, have strong classroom management skills, bring inspired Waldorf practices in a dynamic way, work well with parents and colleagues, and have a deep passion and interest in early childhood development

DWS is a small school set on a beautiful campus located a eco-friendly university town with extensive greenbelts and areas to ride bicycles to school. Our school is located midway between San Francisco and Lake Tahoe, with Sacramento only a short drive away. There are three private Waldorf schools and five charter Waldorf schools within a short drive of our school.

Our full-time colleagues enjoy competitive wages and an employee benefit program, including tuition remission and health insurance. We are an Equal Opportunity Employer.

Please send your resume, a general letter of interest, and three references to Lauren Hickman at pedchair@daviswaldorf.org or 3100 Sycamore Lane, Davis, CA 95616